Rubicon Theatre Company is looking for talented individuals from our region to join the cast of professionals who will be a part of the company's production of In the Heights by Lin-Manuel Miranda and Quiara Alegría Hudes (creators of Hamilton). The show will be directed by a member of the original Broadway company Luis Salgado, who also directed the first Spanish-language version of In the Heights in Washington D.C., which won 9 Helen Hayes Awards!

Auditions will be held late July for the fall rehearsals and show, and we hope to discover and involve existing or new talent from within our region. In preparation for the auditions, we want to give those from our community a chance to be fully prepared. The workshops will include basic instruction in Spanish dance styles used in the show and individual vocal coaching. You will learn the dance combinations to be used in the auditions and also receive individual help picking a song to sing that best shows off your talents. Those who attend all classes will be given a free pair of tickets to previews regardless of whether or not they audition. For audition information, click here.
